

Meredith Alumnae Name Scholarship For Miss Poteat

Kinston Group Starts New Scholarship Fund for Art Students

Honoring Miss Ida Poteat, professor of art at Meredith College, the Kinston chapter of Meredith Alumnae recently started a scholarship fund in her name. This fund is to be used to aid students, especially those in the art department. The announcement of the new fund was made on Founders' Day February 3 and came as a surprise to Miss Poteat.

Miss Poteat has been a member of the Meredith faculty since this institution was founded. She is one of the two who have been with Meredith all the time—Dr. E. Delia Dixon Carroll.

While the "Ida Poteat Loan Fund" is promoted by the Kinston Alumnae, friends and alumnae everywhere have the privilege of contributing to the project. The classes now at Meredith have contributed to the fund, to which approximately $150 have already been given.

STATE PROFESSOR SPEAKER AT CLUB

The Barber Biology Club sponsored a lecture on Poisonous and Non-Poisonous Mushrooms by Dr. R. F. Poole, head of the Pathology Department at State College. The lecture was illustrated by slides showing the characteristics and habitat of the different kinds of mushrooms. He said that; "there are more than 1000 different mushrooms that have been described and the innocuous and edible qualities of this number are known. Many of these can be found in the vicinity of Raleigh." He emphasized the fact that; "if you contemplate gathering mushrooms to eat, you should never depart from one precaution, and that is know the mushroom well before gathering it." He concluded his lecture by reading a large group of recipes on different ways to cook mushrooms.

The Meredith Choir will take part on the program of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs' Convention which will be held in Raleigh, April 5-8. The choir has been asked to sing several selections at a luncheon which will be held at the Hotel Sir Walter, Friday, April 7, for members of the convention.

Alumnae Honoree

Miss Ida I. Poteat, who has been a member of the Meredith Faculty since the founding of the institution.

EMORY GLEE CLUB WELL RECEIVED BY LARGE CROWD

The Glee Club and Orchestra of Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, gave a concert in the Meredith College auditorium Wednesday evening, February 22, at 8:30 o'clock, sponsored by the Junior Class. "The South's Sweetest Singers," directed by Dr. Malcolm H. Dewey, presented a varied program.

Part I consisted of the following numbers by the entire glee club: "Creation's Hymn," Beethoven; "Sleep of the Child Jesus," Gevaert; "Glorious Forever," Rachmaninoff; "Tally-Ho," Franco Leoni; "Shadow" (Please turn to page three)

Prominent Junior Married Recently

The marriage of Martha Davis of Winston-Salem to Lawson Henry Lowrance on January 14, in Danville, Virginia, was formally announced on Sunday, February 18.

Martha has studied at Salem College, and also at Meredith College. The several offices she held while here attest her popularity. She was vice president of the Freshman Class, manager of the Freshman Basketball team, and President of the Sophomore Class. She also won a medal her freshman year, for being the best athlete, and the best sport in her class. Martha was a major in music, and showed talent both in piano and organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowrance are to make their home in Winston-Salem, N. C., where Mr. Lowrance is associated with the Rawls Dixon Candy Company. Mr. Lowrance is a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

Coming Lecturer To Be Dr. W. P. Few Duke President

Kappa Nu Sigma Society to Have Banquet March 7

With Dr. William Preston Few, president of Duke University as speaker, the Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society will have its semi-annual meeting on Tuesday, March 7. Dr. Few will be the guest of honor at a banquet in Meredith dining room and will then deliver a lecture in the regular series, in the college auditorium at 7:30. A reception in the parlors will follow the lecture.

The president of the Honor Society is Margaret Briggs. Other members are: Martha Viccelio, Frances Maynard, Elizabeth Harris, and Dorothy Merritt. Faculty members are: Dr. Helen Price, Dr. Mary Lynch Johnson, Miss Catherine Allen, Miss Nettie Herndon, Miss Ellen Brewer, Miss Ethel Day.

According to a new rule, two members of the Junior Class who have an exceptionally high average for the two years and a half have recently been elected members without awaiting the completion of three years work. These members are Isabel Morgan and Mary Florence Cummings.

Virginia Garnett S. G. President

Virginia Garnett was elected Student Government president for the year 1933-34, at a meeting of the Student Body Thursday morning. Virginia is president of the Junior Class. Other candidates nominated were Marguerite Warren and Amorette Byrd.

College Calendar

Friday, March 3 at 8:30 p.m.
Graduating Piano recital of Sara Herring.
Saturday, March 4 at 8:00 p.m.
Wake Forest-Meredith annual B. Y. U. party in Astra Hall.
Monday, March 6 at 6:45 p.m.
Dr. Rippey, of Duke University, is to be International Relationship Club speaker.
Tuesday, March 7 at 6:00 p.m.
Formal dinner of Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society.
Tuesday, March 7 at 8:00 p.m.
Dr. William P. Few, president of Duke University, to lecture to Student Body.
Friday, March 10 at 8:00 p.m.
Meredith Glee Club to give concert.
Monday, March 13 at 8:00 p.m.
Art evening in honor of art seniors.
Thursday, March 16 at 8:30 p.m.
Graduating Piano recital of Helen Dozier.

Meredith Speaker

Dr. S. D. Gordon, of New York City, who led the week of Deeper Spiritual Thinking.

Margaret Briggs To Be May Queen

According to a recent election Margaret Briggs of Raleigh, will reign over the May Day Festival this year.

Throughout her four years at Meredith, Margaret has held a number of offices on the campus, having been president of her class in her Sophomore year; secretary of the Student Government and photograph editor of the Oak Leaves her Junior year and editor-in-chief of the Oak Leaves and president of the Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society this year.

The other candidates who were nominated for the election were: Mary Frances Snead and Nancye McDaniel.

Chloris Kellum of '30 Secures High Position

Miss Chloris Kellum, of '30, has become affiliated with the Community Relief Exchange of Durham in an executive capacity. After leaving Meredith College she took a course at the New York School of Social Work, and received actual experience with the Brooklyn, N. Y., Bureau of Charities. Since April 1, 1931, she has been connected with the Associated Charities in Wilmington.

Chloris was a popular and well-known figure on the campus, she held several offices during her four years at Meredith: An officer on the B. S. U. staff, also on the Student Government Council serving as House President, a member of the International Relationship Club, a members of the Nominating Committee, and President of the Philaretian Literary Society.

Well Known Author is College Lecturer During Past Week

Author of "Quiet Talks" Had Large Audiences Twice Daily

A most interesting and inspiring series of "Quiet Talks" conducted by Dr. S. D. Gordon, New York City, was held at Meredith College from February 19 to 25.

Dr. Samuel Dickey Gordon, famous and internationally known author and lecturer was born in Philadelphia, Pa., on August 12, 1859. He was associate secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Philadelphia during 1884-86 and was state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Ohio from 1886-95. He has been a public speaker of great fame since 1895 and spent four years on a speaking journey in the Orient and Europe.

All of the Meredith students and faculty were greatly impressed with Dr. Gordon during his stay here, because in his quiet way he appealed to his audiences. Too many town students came to hear his talks.

Speaking twice daily—once during chapel at ten-thirty and again after dinner at six-forty-five, Dr. Gordon talked on many varied and interesting topics. Some of which were: "Prayer Changes Things," "Pitching Tent on Olivet," "Woman's Power," "Spending the Day With God," "Present Troublous World Situation as Seen from Geneva," "Hungry God," and "The Master is Here."

I. R. CLUB RECEIVES FIVE NEW BOOKS

The International Relations Club has received five new books from the Carnegie Endowment which have been placed on the International Relations alcove in the college library.

Three of the books "War Debts and Word Prosperity" by Moulton and Pasvolsky, "America: World Leader or World Led?" by Ernest Minor Patterson, and "Modern Foreign Exchange" by Franklin Escher, discuss the general world economic situation.

Two of the books "Economic Rivalries in China" by Grover Clark, and "Business and Politics in the Far East" by Edith E. Ware, throw light on the Far Eastern situation.